Loveless Mar 03 2020 Loveless is a standalone MM novella with a HEA. I lie to everyone my entire life. Hiding. Lonely. Loveless. Then he came along. The light to reveal me, casting my shadows away. The partner to be here for me, who never allows me to be lonely again. The man to prove I'm worthy, promising to show me I'm not loveless after all. My little prince. My savior. My happy ending. Mine. I honestly don't read a lot of M/M romance, not a lot at all. In fact, once upon a time, I didn't think I ever would. So to those who are more accustomed to the exact sub-genre, it might be your usual, but to me, this one's a masterpiece. It's simple and understated, and yet, gut-wrenching at its core because of the truth and realism of how harmful unwarranted judgment and censure is. All in all, the story is perfection. Simply, pure and utter perfection. - Goodreads Reviewer

This time he vowed to go hard or go home. And true to his word, he went hard, using the backs of any and all as a ladder to climb up; not caring who, what, when, where, or why. He was all in. He had learned in prison that only the heartless survived, and circumstances had hardened his heart. Now anger and bitterness were pushing him toward becoming heartless. And if being heartless was what it would take to make it, then so be it. But karma is a motherfucker when you're playing against the odds.
